

But glorious it was to see how the open region was filled with horses and chariots, with trumpeters and pipers, with singers and players upon stringed instruments, to welcome the pilgrims as they went up and followed one another in at the beautiful gate of the city.

John Bunyan (Pilgrim's Progress)

The 1936 GATEWAY said, "Lilian was brought up in a Christian home and does not remember any time when she did not know the Lord. We have admired her quiet, studious ways while she was in our midst. Her business course and experience as a stenographer will be useful, we are sure, in her work for the Lord."

The 1976 MAVAIPA says, "Miss Lilian Softley, for your many years of service, for your quiet industrious ways, for your labours to presidents and the chancellor, for your efforts without which the College could not be run, we dedicate this Yearbook."

Miss Lilian Softley

A Message from the President

Victor adrian

Few lives in Biblical history so challenge the imaginations of our hearts as does Abraham's pilgrimage with God! Jehovah's call brought uprootedness; Babylon was no longer his home, and in the new land of promise he lived as an alien; faith in God brought a stirring vision to Abraham's life - henceforth "he looked for the city which hath foundations, whose architect and builder is God."

He was a pilgrim, but a pilgrim with God; there were altars of worship and dedication, visits with the Lord by day, and talks with Him in the night; through Isaac he experienced God as El Shaddai. It was a life filled with bright hope, for the future, for our Lord says, "Abraham saw My day."

May you who have spent some time at Ontario Bible College, be powerfully motivated to be a pilgrim - who persistently and steadfastly looks for the city of God. And may your life, as an obedient servant of our Lord, be like Abraham's - an adventure with God!

A Message from the Chancellor

S. C. Borhmer

SO YOU ARE A PILGRIM?

However it is defined, the word "Pilgrim" means a traveller, a wayfarer - always moving, advancing, climbing hills or crossing rivers, BUT NEVER STANDING STILL!

Bunyan wrote in his immortal classic: "They went then till they came to the 'Delectable Mountains'; which mountains belong to the Lord of that hill of which we have spoken before; so they went up to the Mountains to behold the gardens and orchards, the vineyards and fountains of water; where also they drank and washed themselves and did freely eat of the vineyards."

Those 'Delectable Mountains' may seem to be a long way off, as you start out on a new pilgrim journey, and the fruit and fountains may seem to be elusive - but be assured that they are there.

You will reach them, eventually and assuredly, by slow prodding, fervent prayer and sincere service.

Another writer (H.A. Williams in 'Soundings') has well said:

"It is therefore the opinion of the present writer that even in this age there are no supersonic flights to the Celestial City, or even to the Palace Beautiful. Increased awareness can be obtained only by a journey on foot by way of the Slough of Despond, the Hill of Difficulty, Doubting Castle and the rest."

Pilgrims of 1977 - plod on, fight on, keep on, and some day for you too, as they did for Valiant - For - The - Truth, "all the trumpets will sound on the other side", and pilgrimage will cease.

May God give you a faithful heart in your pilgrimage!

Dedication Service

The official opening and dedication of the new Campus and Ontario Theological Seminary was held on Sunday, September 26, 1976. That afternoon the chapel, dining hall, and gymnasium were filled to capacity with dignitaries, students, relatives, and interested friends. The speaker for this occasion was Rev. G.B. Griffiths, member of the Board of Governors. Special music was provided by the College Chorale. The service held for all a vivid reminder of the way God miraculously provides.

STUDENT'S COUNCIL

Student Council has been involved this year in the challenge of working for a sense of family unity here at O.B.C. It has been a pleasure to see Council tackling their jobs, with a vision of ministry to students and then seeing our own and student growth as a result. I can think of no better way to finish my years at OBC than to be involved with students through the office of President.

I'm especially grateful to Jacquie, Danny, and Ruth whose ideas and counsel were indispensable in getting the job done. A special thank you as well to the members of the Council who all worked so hard in this transition year.

In closing could I leave with you the thought that Timothy received from Paul: Pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, perseverance and gentleness. Fight the good fight of faith...keep the commandments without stain or blemish until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Sincerely, Kevin Fleetwood.

"I, therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, entreat you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling with which you have been called . . . being diligent to preserve the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace."

The apostle Paul knew that all Christians are united together by the Holy Spirit. He was also aware that knowing this fact intellectually and knowing it in experience were two different things. He exhorted believers to preserve and work at the experience of being one in the Spirit.

The major goal of our class has been to promote the unity that we have in Christ. Knowing it in our minds is easy, but we want to experience it. My prayer is that as we reflect over this past school year we will be able to say "Yes, experience told me that were one in Christ."

CHRIST OUR VISION

We've changed

From that first scared day at Spadina To our final step onto Bayview A few gone-not forgotten Others joined sharing what students share sharing what God's children share Not yet finished our course we've merely gained first insight of self ... first look at our task And so we pray for a class of individuals to use their strengths and remember their weaknesses before our God.

"Let us run the race with endurance fixing our eyes upon Jesus; the author and finisher of our faith." Hebrews 12:1,2.

INCIDENT ON A BEACH

Two silhouetted mages Moving through the thick, dim mist, Along the ice And snow-covered beach.
They stop and embrace a kiss.

The walkway, lit by muffled lamps As the mist 'round each one's swirled. The shadows see No more than themselves. They alone walk in their world.

A chill lake breeze slips over them And the lake-sound laps their ears. Their lives entwine, A brief encounter. The frost wind freezes their tears.

Together they pass through the night One's hand clasping the other's. Like phantoms, both, From another life, Never knowing each other.

MY WOODLAND ROSE

The woodland carpet With flowers was strewn As I walked through it About half-past noon.

The air was heavy. The sky was drear. The sun had vanished. No birds could I hear.

And then I saw her 'Midst the forest lawn. Her leaves still glistened With the dew of dawn.

Her petals were velvet, Still partially closed. In all the forest The only white rose.

Her fragance was sweet On a warm wisp of air. Her stem was slender; I touched it with care.

Then her petals shone A dazzling white. The clouds dissipated, The air, once more, light.

Her freshness then filled The air that I breathed. The birds came alive As their song was freed.

And at once I knew That wild rose was mine. And I shall love her, Love for all time.

THE MADMAN OF SYDENHAM ROAD

Silently you gaze
Into the frozen window
At things you'll never touch,
At things you'll never own,
And yet, forever entrapped,
You will stand there in the cold.
The grey, autumn wind
Your hidden hair will not know.
Your hands I'll never touch.
Your face you'll never show.
And always watching is
The madman of Sydenham Road.

'Neath the wirey maze
The silent trolleys roll
Past forgotten doorways.
Past those who won't grow old.
Forever going nowhere
On their journeys now untold.
Their shining, steel tracks
Are buried and have grown cold.
Their shining, steel tracks
Are buried and have grown cold.
Their shining, steel tracks
Are buried and have grown cold.
Their fares I'll never pay.
Their jolts I'll hever know.
And yet, always patching, is
The madman of Sydenham Road.

Under the grey fraze
I find myself alone,
Always knowing no on.
Always growing old.
I find evrywhere is stained
With the memories I hold.
My feet rustle leaves
That the autumn wind has blown.
Your hands I have held.
Your face I have known.
And now, always watching, I'm
The madman of Sydenham Road.

"Because I love my Master" were the words that rung in our ears repeatedly as Mr. Elwyn Davies brought God's word to us from Titus 1: 1-4 during the 76-77 Missionary Conference. "Our expression of love to God is obedience, choosing not to go free," said our theme speaker. What a challenge! What a privilege! For we have been entrusted with the gospel.

Dozens responded to such a challenge by making a public committinent during the final evening service of the Conference whiles others quietly watched and prayed.

Diane and I want to sincerely thank each one of you who gave so freely and worked so sacrificially on the S.C.G.M. When people work together, doing it for the Lord, He blesses, and that He did.

It has been a tremendous training time for Diane and I this year and we count it a privilege to serve you in this way. As we leave this great college that has had such a significant role in our lives through faculty/staff/students, we will miss you.

Ontario Theological Seminary

Pastoral Theology Class

David Halse

This year, the long awaited dream of many faculty and students was realized, not only in the move to our beautiful new campus, but also in the opening of Ontario Theological Seminary. The attractive new building housing the seminary was completed late in the first term, and provides room not only for seminary classes, but also for several of the larger O.B.C. classes.

The Seminary offers full time post graduate work for those wishing it, leading up to a Masters Degree. Also available are part time courses, available for full-time pastors wishing further education and training.

Serving at O.T.S. are: Dr. R. Matheson - dean Dr. D. Leggett D. M. DiGangi Dr. V. Adrian, part-time Dr. W. Foster, part-time Miss. Jean Williams, secretary

"I wish I knew what he was talking about."

Dr. Leggett enjoys a discussion-especially over lunch.

O.B.C. Evening School

Every Tuesday and Thursday evening scores of adults, from every walk of life from all over Metropolitan Toronto come to the O.B.C. campus to continue their education in the area of Biblical and Church related courses.

Some come as new believers desiring to know more about their new found faith; others to improve their knowledge and others to pursue the possibility of future ministry.

The Evening School operates in two divisions. The Diploma Division offers several six week courses in a variety of areas. These classes meet for one and a half hours per week.

A recent development in the Evening School has been the offering of regular College Credit courses. Here regular day school subjects are offered. The Credit Division has been operating for two years and interest runs very high at this point.

"CHRIST OUR VISION" (Heb. 12:1, 2)

Your Class Motto has both

A SUBJECT: "CHRIST"

Subject: "The word denoting that concerning which an affirmation is made."

IS HE "BOTH LORD AND CHRIST" TO YOU?

and

AN OBJECT: "VISION"

Object: "The word or phrase that receives the action of the verb and completes the subject."

IS YOUR "VISION" THE FULFILLMENT OF CHRIST'S PURPOSES IN YOU?

It is easy to choose a motto. It is difficult to see it practically fulfilled. God help you to see its fulfillment in your lives.

Thoughts From The Woods

Sitting Bent-legged on a hilltop Gazing Starry-eyed across field crop Quickening To my mind pastimes spent here Beauty That is always so near Breathing Through me the Spirit of God With the wind I did trod Sensing In a quiet serene solitude And Happy in this kind of mood Knowing In His perfect love I was His chosen dove.

I want to help you
As you grow
Your roots embedding
In the earth
And your leaves uncurl
And your bud appears
And opens
A blooming Flower
Dew clings to its petals
Oh tears
Of wonder
I want to help you
As you grow
Into a wonder of God.

Good Old College Days

The days in school have gone by fast, But the happy memories have not past. The big bad college has stopped to rest, For three long months of lonely quest.

The work was hard; the days were long, But in a few years you'll be gone. And on some dark, dreary day, You'll think back and say, "Those really were the good old days!"

The Word Unheard

orphan at the Salvation Army Pack sack with guilder, you were the wandering gypsy forced to retreat from the highway's bitter cold is gave you a moolin your desperation but my words you would not eat, even though there has been another ragged Nanderer who know them to be bread of life.

John Krunger

How can I sit and laugh and sample Earl Grey When deep down I desire to be Ead And to smash those who bring about wur, And death, and coldness and aloneness?

And how can I worry about my. final grades when many are taking their final breath And know rothing of a purpose, a love Or a way made for his own to follow?

you it desire to be God-Able to correct all of this mistakes, And to bring love and prace, And to jutionly destroy all that is black would it have used the cross? would it be so big on forgiveness? would it except the prayers of broken sinners? would it merely destroy all and walk eway from it?

Would -> Wooden Cress -> ett wouldn't cross my mind.

alts difficult to leave a good relationship knowing that it can never be the same again. you thank that person for both good and bad And all of the time and growth that was shared you feel awkward in that she can get along too well without youalt's hot the micest feeling. But somehow you know that parting is best. The relationship was never meant to be long term. you look to the days ahead and think of someone else. There were others before and there'll be others after. yet her presence is very powerful and something inside ories and dies. So often we have to drink this sweet cup of sorrow. If only she missed me, as I will miss her. She is so cold. She doesn't even pourse to look back!

Afright! I'm going to succeed without her! el wish her all of the best of everything, but still... al want to show her! I'll make her proud of me And when elim old, and ready to see God face to face, "I'll yell at the top of my lungs:
"al loved her, and..." what good would it do? A school won't even a person - let avone a german. Yet, if you're like me, and you let your feelings get in, Then you could swear that she's alive.

BORN TO WIN

If you will only touch me, And do it gently and softly; If you will just look at me, And smile at me sincerely; If sometimes, before you speak, You'll listen to what I know; Then you will hear my heart beat, And you'll see that I will grow.

Don't shut me out of the life we're in, Because, you see, I was born to win.

M. Skinner.
